English

French

Spanish

Portuguese

New language selection function

The EZ-SAT now features language selection and supports the following languages.

English, French, Spanish and Portuguese.

To select the required language tap the function button during the EZ-SAT start up screen until the required language is indicated in the lower right hand corner. The language selected will remain resident unless it is changed again during start-up.